

Trainee / certificated enforcement agent (bailiff)

Full time role, flexible hours.

We have a vacancy for a trainee / certificated enforcement agent. No previous experience is needed – we offer first class training and you would be working for the largest independent enforcement agency in the UK.

You will need to be confident and have a positive, can do attitude, either certificated or come from a military, prison service, police, direct sales or security background. Candidates need to be disciplined, confident, persuasive and enjoy a challenging environment.

Successful candidates will need to pass the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check process and any relevant exams.

Overview of required enforcement agent candidate

- Confident and self-motivated with good negotiation communication skills
- Persuasive and disciplined while dealing with difficult people
- You should possess the ability to communicate clearly, positively and effectively both orally and in writing
- Planning own daily schedule to visit addresses to execute warrants or seize goods. Following guidelines always
- Enter reports via appropriate company-supplied devices and upload media from body cameras
- High level of self-motivation and able to work unsociable hours

In return we offer:

- A competitive salary, bonus and commission
- Training
- Company vehicle and relevant equipment provided
- Good long-term prospects for the right candidate
- A rewarding team atmosphere with flexible working hours

To apply, send your CV to our HR Department.